

Who should use this form

Form 1195 Identity declaration must be completed and provided to the Department of Home Affairs (the Department) if you are applying online for citizenship by descent or evidence of citizenship.

An application for Australian citizenship by descent or evidence of citizenship cannot be approved where a person's identity is not able to be verified.

Important – Please read this information carefully before you complete this form. Once you have completed this form we strongly advise that you keep a copy for your records.

Integrity of application

The Department is committed to maintaining the integrity of the visa and citizenship programs. If you or a third party acting on your behalf provide, or have provided in a previous application, false or misleading information or documents (either knowingly or otherwise), this application may be refused. In addition, you may be prosecuted under the Migration Act 1958 and/or the Australian Citizenship Act 2007. If information or documents are found to be fraudulent or misleading after you become an Australian citizen, you may be prosecuted and may be subject to revocation of your Australian citizenship.

Who can complete the Identity declaration

Questions 1 and 4 of this form must be completed by the person who is applying for citizenship by descent or evidence of citizenship (the applicant).

Questions 2 and 3 of this form must be completed, and the photograph endorsed and signed, by a person who:

- is an Australian citizen, and
- has known you for at least one year, and
- is currently working in a profession or occupation listed on pages 1 and 2, and
- is not related to you by birth, marriage or de facto relationship, and
- is easy to contact by telephone during normal working hours.

Note: If you are applying from outside Australia and do not know an Australian citizen, Questions 2 and 3 can be completed, and the photograph endorsed and signed by a citizen of your country of residence who has known you for at least one year, is currently working in a profession or occupation listed on page 2, and is not related to you by birth, marriage or de facto relationship.

For children under 6 years of age, Questions 2 and 3 can be completed by an Australian citizen (or citizen of the child's country of residence if applying from outside Australia) who has known the child for less than 12 months, is currently working in a profession or occupation listed on page 2, and is not related by birth, marriage or de facto relationship.

What the photograph requirements are

You will need to glue a passport-sized photograph of the applicant on the space provided under Question 3. The person who completes Questions 2 and 3 must sign over a bottom corner of the front of the photograph as shown in the example, ensuring that they do not sign over the applicant's face.

The photograph must be:

- no more than 6 months old, and
- a full-face view of your head and shoulders (untinted prescription glasses can be worn – a photograph that shows facial features only is acceptable if you wear a head covering for religious reasons), and
- of good quality, in colour, against a plain, light coloured background (laser copies are not acceptable), and
- 35mm to 40mm wide and 45mm to 50mm high. The size of the face from chin to crown can be up to a maximum of 36mm, with a minimum of 32mm.

Photograph to be no more than 6 months old

How to submit this form and photograph

Pages 3 and 4 of this form including the photograph, should be scanned together as one file and uploaded to your online application under 'Form 1195 - Identity declaration'.

Note: You will also be required to upload a digital version of the photograph provided in this form to your online application under 'Photograph'.

We recommend that you have your photo taken at a professional passport photograph provider, such as an Australian Post Office (or similar if you are applying from outside Australia), where you can also have a digital copy sent to you via email.
